| 1.   | On 14 Oct, 2017. Saturday college celebrated "Freshers Day" across all six departments in their allocated areas, involving second years and first years of respective departments. The activities involved cultural activities, competitions, networking between freshers and second years, dances, food arrangements from 11:00 am to 3:30 pm. As it was a Parent-Teachers Day also for first years even some parents took part in the events and the whole event was supervised by appointed faculty mentors. The atmosphere was generally high pitched, with lot of enthusiasm and excitement. Miss Fresher and Mr. Fresher and similar prizes were distributed. No observations of misbehaviour were reported from the Mechanical branch party. The mechanical branch party ended by 3:30 pm. without any reportable incident or altercation between students. |        |
| 2.   | The Principal, Dean Discipline, HOD (Mechanical) went around the I and II year sections on 17th and 18th October. As the attendance was thin owing to Diwali vacation, the same was repeated on 23 October '17, asking for information of any untoward incident on 14 Oct, 2017. Even the Class Representatives (CR) were tasked with the same. But no confirmation received from anybody.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |        |

The complainant Mr. Rajashankar Reddy and the accused Mr. Harish who had a scuffle two months ago on a Serial-Junior ego issue at the games room, which surfaced again on 11/08/17. The Anti-Ragging Team interview all witnesses of both occasions and some

to the following conclusions and recommendations:-

1. This is not a case of ragging but a misunderstanding between 1st year and 3rd years which was going on between them for the last 2 months. Once it was between 3rd year and 4th year and then between 4th year and 3rd year on 16th October, 2017. Due to emotional outburst the 3rd year student complained to the Anti-ragging helpline without informing any local authorities.

2. Student Mr. G. Raji Shekhar Reddy and Student V. Harish along with parents apologised for the incident involving a scuffle of tearing a shirt, hand touching each other. The complainant student G. Raji Shekhar Reddy with father accepted the apology. All of them confirmed that they shall be friends throughout their career.

3. Committee advise all to follow existing local procedures for any untoward incident.

4. Committee also advises all the students to focus on studies as end semester examinations are from 13 November 2017. All the students involved have been strictly cautioned against repeat of such incidents which will attract severe punishment as per norms.
