THE GLOBAL EMPLOYMENT MARKET

OVERVIEW OF THE 'THE GREAT RESIGNATION'

Between April and September 2021, more than 24 million American employees left their jobs, an all-time record with a record 4.5m quits at the end of November.

The UK Labour Force Survey (LFS) shows that 1.02 million people left their job between July and Sep 2021.

The Workhuman Fall 2021 International Survey Report has found that 42% of Irish workers intend on resigning within the next 12 months - a figure that has jumped from 21% prior to the Covid-19 pandemic.

THE GLOBAL EMPLOYMENT MARKET

A Microsoft study has found that 41 percent of the global workforce is considering leaving their employer.

A survey conducted by the Harvard Business Review found employees between 30 and 45 years old have had the greatest increase in resignation rates, with an average increase of more than 20% between 2020 and 2021.
